

Once upon a time there lived a horse called Sweetie.

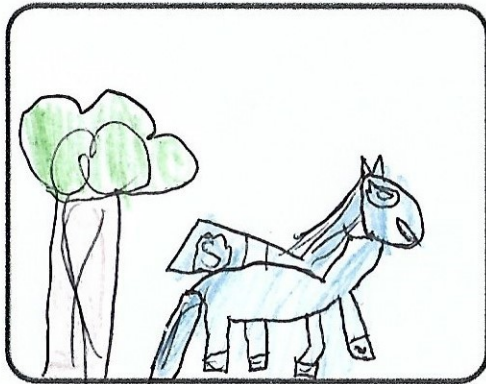

One day Sweetie saw some fairies carrying shoes on her.

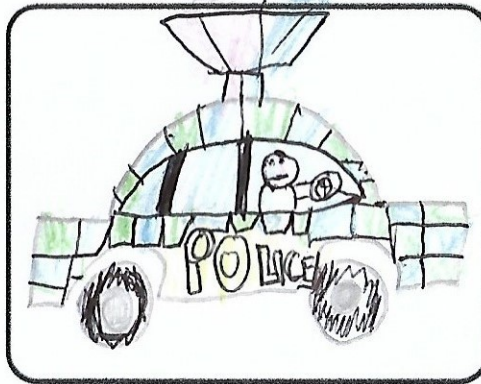

The fairies saw her. They put the shoes on her.

The fairies gave her a mask and cape and flew away.

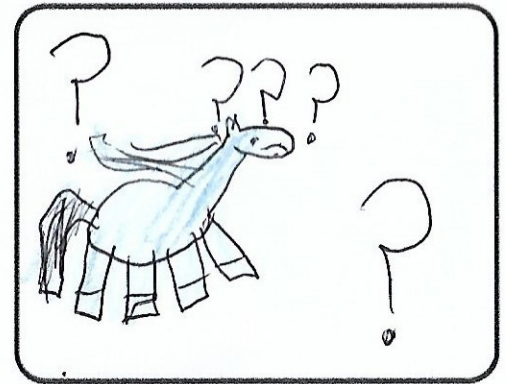

Sweetie began to walk home. She looked forwards, ever. Then she heard the police. She ran faster than

When she got home it was night. She ran inside.

Sweetie looked around. Everything was gone!

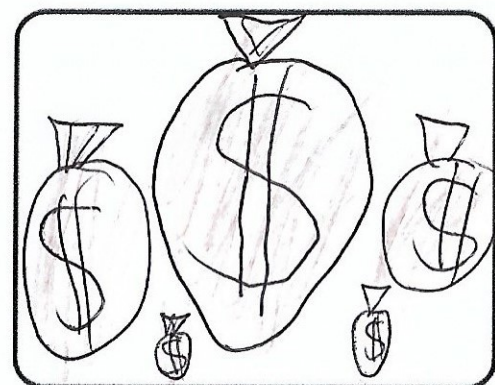

Burglars!
she cried.
She found one and he was
and kicked him.

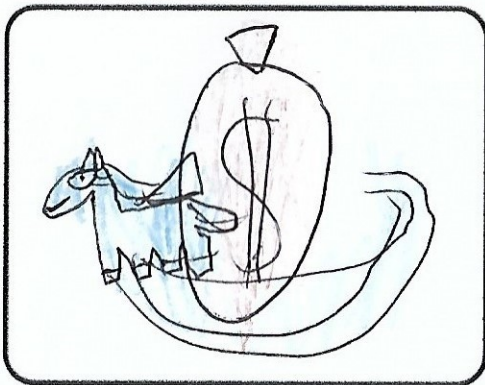

Whenever
she found
one he was kicked.

She went back outside.
More burglars
were standing
there.

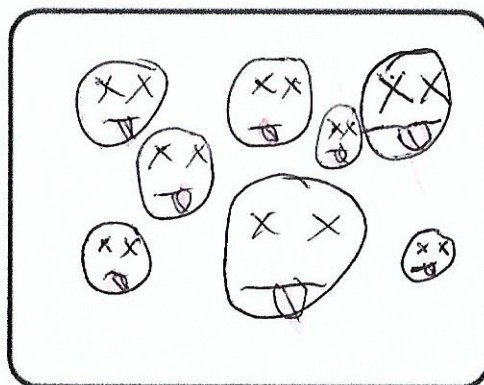

Suddenly,
huge sacks
appeared! One was bigger than the others.

Sweetie ran
round them,
then changed
her name

to Speedy.
She kicked every burglar she could find.

Everyone
clapped and cheered. Speedy gave them

all a sack
and they all lived
happily ever after.
The End.
