

Insects

There are a load of different bugs in the world. I am going to be showing only 2 so i should stop talking and start showing:)

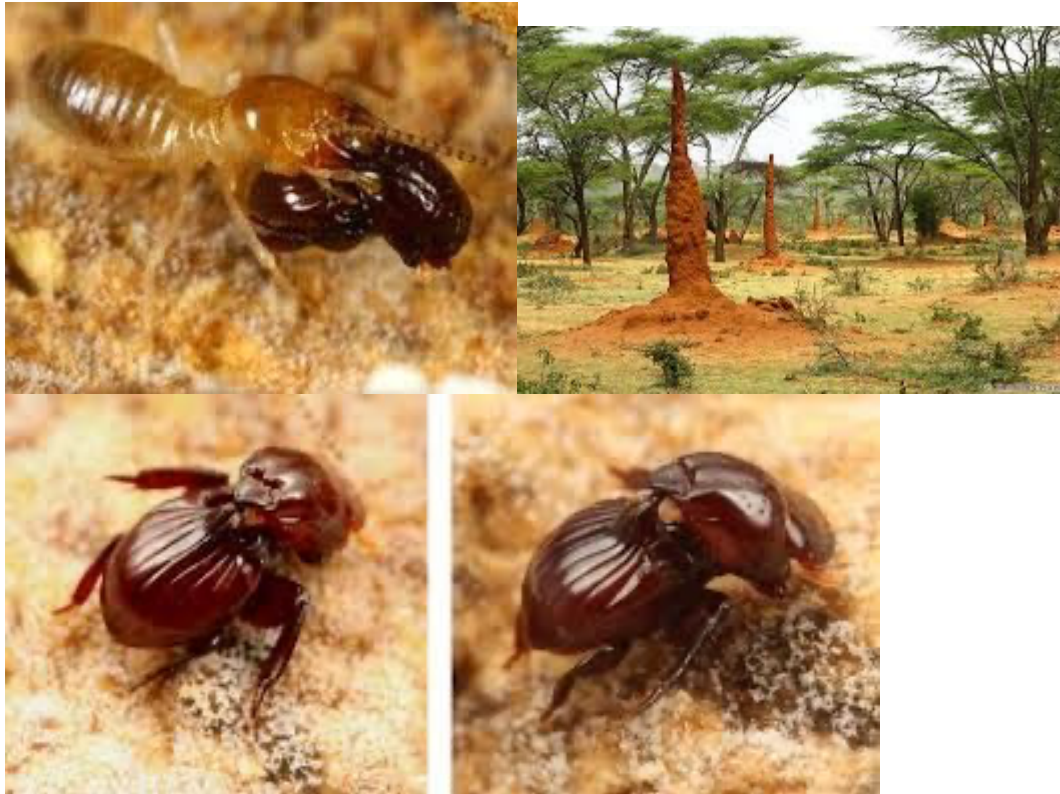

#1 best camouflaged

1. The stick insect is famous for being the most camouflaged insect in the world. 2. stick insects are so named for their effective camouflage in plants.
3. They're usually brown, black, or green, with thin, stick shaped bodies.
4. stick insects live about 4 to 10 months.

#2 laziest 1.Eocorythoderus incredibilis is the laziest bug ever.

2. Eocorythoderus incredibilis evolved handles on its defensive layer that allows it to be carried by termites to food sources.
3. there habitat is in cambodia in different termite mounds.
4. It has been around since the time of the dinosaurs .
5. Its nickman is Beetle suitcase .

#3 ugliest

1. Bocydium globulare. Better known as the Brazilian treehopper is one of the most ugliest insects in the world .
2. It is an insect that spends most of its life all alone.
3. Its head is the size of a pea and looks like it is wear a helmet.
4. Brazilian treehoppers live in Brazil forest, they live on trees in Brazil while they feed on sap in weeds and other plants.
5. Adults are between 1.5 and 2 inches long.

